Statement of Mrs. Kanagal

MDS 618/94.

Resolution with the record of inquiry: 15

1/- Perm. Sivaraman was working in the Revenue Inspector, Hanur till 30.7.94 and he died on 30.7.94 all of a sudden due to chest pain. He has put in a service of about 15 years in Revenue Department

2/- He has left behind him his wife, Mrs. [illegible] and 2 daughters legal descriptor roll & Encloses legal heir duplicate together with finger prints. He has no issues. His wife is now [illegible] looked by the father-in-law of Late Sivaraman. Enquiries reveal that he had no properties of either movable or immovable of his own. During his life time in service, he was not subscribing any amount towards the G.P.F. Mrs. Mrs. Hutchamma states that he is not indebted to anybody and no amount is due to her husband from outside also. She further states that she was in receipt of arrears of pay in August month and that no amount is due to her as arrears from Govt. The Kollegal Rubber servants' cooperative society may be addressed.

4/- Mrs. Hutchamma is only 30 years and she has no children to protect her now except her father who is already pretty old and in future also. As she has no properties also, she finds it difficult to lead her life. Her husband has served for 15 years in department and he could not subscribe anything towards the G.P.F. as it was not possible for him. Hence Mrs. Hutchamma deserves encouragement from Govt in the shape of gratuity at the early date.
